Terms and Conditions

These terms and conditions cover all offers of YogAmé, Amélie Zoll, as well as all agreements between YogAmé, Amélie Zoll and their participants. The terms and conditions have to be agreed and acknowledged upon registration via the official website of the yoga-studio YogAmé. They are therefore part of all written and spoken agreements.

1. Registration and Prices

Registration must be made in writing and is thereby binding. It should be made online via the website. In exceptional cases the registration form can also be sent via e-mail. The prices are published on the website. YogAmé, Amélie Zoll, reserves the right to change and adjust the current prices and programs. Already purchased subscription cards keep their validity until they expire.

2. Contracts

The particular course fee has to be paid prior to the beginning of the yoga class. All subscription cards are personal and are not transferable. Subscription unit cards which have not fully been used lapse after the expiration date. Raising a claim for a refund is not possible. Contracts cannot be terminated once the course has started.

3. Participation

According to the offer, the contract entitles to participation. Excluded from this are public holidays and school holidays in Northrhine Westfalia. During holiday season there will be four weeks per year, when no yoga classes take place.

After talking to the yoga teacher, participants of a yoga class can catch up on the missed classes, as long as the maximum number of participants won't be exceeded. In case yoga classes are not taken, YogAmé, Amélie Zoll, does not reimburse the course fees. The same applies to illness, holidays or the temporary professional absence, etc. Exceptions will be made in case of long term absence or severe illness and pregnancy.

4. Participation Capacity

Participation at a yoga class happens in the sole responsibility of the participant. Upon registration the participant has to fill out a registration form and therein has to inform the yoga teacher prior to the beginning of a yoga class about any health issues. The instructions of the yoga teacher are to be understood as suggestions/stimuli and offers. It's up to the participant's free will and it is her/his own responsibility to follow them only as far as she/he can take responsibility for it. This also applies to possible practical support. In case the participant does not wish to receive it, she/he has to inform the yoga teacher accordingly. YogAmé, Amélie Zoll, has no personal liability for any health damage of the participant.

5. Cancellation of Yoga Classes

In case the yoga teacher of YogAmé cannot teach the class due to illness or a professional training, YogAmé, Amélie Zoll, will try to find a substitute teacher to cover the particular yoga class. In case this won't be possible, it can happen that a yoga class has to be cancelled. A reduction of the yoga class fee is not possible. Missed yoga classes which are due to the absence of the yoga teacher can be caught up after their return.

6. Liability

YogAmé cannot be held liable for damages and injuries, which occurred due to the own fault of the participant. YogAmé, Amélie Zoll, is not liable for any loss of clothing, valuables, money or other objects which have been taken to the yoga-studio.

7. Data Security
